truffaut hitchcock book Any book-length interview with Alfred Hitchcock is valuable, but considering that this volume's interlocutor is FranÃ§ois Truffaut, the conversation is remarkable indeed. Here is a rare opportunity to eavesdrop on two cinematic masters from very different backgrounds as they cover each of Hitch's films in succession.

truffaut hitchcock book PREFACE TO THE REVISED EDITION. It was obvious that Hitchcock, whose genius for publicity was equalled only by that of Salvador Dali, had in the long run been victimized in American intellectual circles because of his facetious response to interviewers and his deliberate practice of deriding their questions.
